The Weekly Literary Club met last evening at the club room of St. Paul's Parish House. The attendance was excellent, there being fourteen members present. The principal event of the evening was a very interesting talk by Rev. Mr. Mapes, the subject of which was the "Knights of King Arthur."

The speaker was of the opinion that the subject would make an appropriate study for the club members during coming year. It is very probable that the idea suggested by Rev. Mr. Mapes will be accepted and action taken on the matter at the next regular meeting. The speaker stated that he was deeply interested in the work of the club and pledged his service in any manner that would be of benefit to the club or individual members.

One new member was added to the membership list. The next meeting will be held in one week.

Miss Bessie Dundore of West Church street was hostess to the members of the T. A. B. club last evening. Practically all of the club members were present and a delightful session resulted.

The most notable features of the occasion was two guessing contests in which Miss Lena Davids and Miss Cleo Savage won the prize.

The club held its annual election of officers at this time and chose Mrs. Harry Meredith for president and Miss Anna Schoenlaub, secretary and treasurer. As a concluding feature, the hostess served an excellent three course luncheon.

The club determined to hold its next meeting at the home of Miss Florence Foster of South Main street.

The M. O. B. club met with Miss Roma Hofstetter of East Center street last evening. The club members were all present. The evening was pleasantly passed at music and various social diversions. A photographer was present and took a photograph of the members of the club. A notable feature was a two course luncheon served by the hostess.

The club's guests upon this occasion were Mrs. Ernst Carl and Miss Torrey.

Miss Hazel Lepper of North State street will be hostess to the club at its next meeting.

Mrs. M. A. Turney, of Delaware avenue, was hostess to the Twigs at a very pleasant party yesterday afternoon. In a season at bridge Miss Florence Hane won the prize. A six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess after cards had been laid aside. Mrs. C. C. Fisher and Mrs. A. E. Cheney were the club guests.

The next meeting of the Twigs was not decided upon.

Busby P. Sweeney was host to a number of Masonic grand lodge of floors at a dinner at the Commercial club at six o'clock last evening. The repeat was served in eight courses. Covers were laid for the host, Ralph R. Rickley, and Edward H. Archer of Columbus; C. L. Hoskinson of Zanesville; M. B. Dickerson, George D. Copeland and Eugene Sweeney of this city.

The Tally Wags will celebrate their sixteenth anniversary with a stag dinner and seven-up party to be given at the club Friday night, November 8.

A small crowd last night witnessed the production of "A Desperate Chance" at the Grand. The play abounded in hair raising climaxes that surely did appeal to the occupants of the "sky parlor."

Try ADMIRAL COFFEE.A Keyser Clock.

One of the most curious clocks in the world is said to be that which tells the time to the inhabitants of a little American backwoods town. The machinery, which is nothing but a face hands and lever, is connected with a keyser which shoots out an immense column of hot water every 35 seconds. This spouting never varies to the tenth of a second. Every time the water spouts up it strikes the lever and moves the hands forward 35 seconds.

OHIO TEACHERS OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS LOOTED OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

Lohmeyer Gives Valuable Statistics to Substantiate His Charges.

Teachers necessarily reflect the type of education that prevails throughout the public schools, the professional type, which does not admit of a base or foundation.

Teachers through organizations have sought by arbitrary legislative enactments to secure relief in violation of immutable economical laws and have failed, and will continue to fail to benefit the patrons of the public schools until they recognize a basis of equity though they may secure class legislation.

We quote the following statistics of wages of Ohio teachers to verify the above:

TEACHERS' WAGES TOWNSHIP DISTRICTS ELEMENTARY.
Year	Men	Women
1893	$37	$28
1894	37	29
1895	36	28

1904	37	34
1905	38	37

It will be noted above that a depression began in the state in 1895, which affected the male teachers. This tendency reached low "water mark" in 1898 and remained there for three years. In 1903, the wages again reached the level paid in 1894.

During that time, the wages of female teachers increased from $28 per month to $34. In 1905 the male teachers received $1 per month increase, and the females $6 increase above wages paid in 1893.

1905	68	50

In 1895 the depression affected the male teachers in township high schools and there was a gradual tendency downward until 1899, one year later than that of the male teachers in the ungraded country schools. The "low water mark" for the male high school teachers lasted but two years instead of three, as was the case of the teachers of lower rank. In 1902 two years prior to the return of wages to the township teachers wages reached the level of 1893.

The period of depression for the male high school teacher was comparatively short, really from 1898 to 1902, while that of the male teacher in township schools lasted from 1895 to 1903.

The low ebb "water mark" for the female teacher in township high school lasted one year.

The increase in wages from 1893 to 1905 is $7 for males, and $10 for females.

There has been a decided tendency downward in wages for the teachers of elementary schools, and there is no field where the laborers are more arduous than in the above schools. No field where so much good can be accomplished, as in the elementary schools of our towns and cities. If a child is to grow up in ignorance of scholastic learning, it is far better for him to be in the country than in the city. In the country he can be ignorant of nature and of the many lessons she teaches.

The above will hardly admit of comparison. In 1905, men teachers received $9 less per month than in 1893. The decline for female teachers in same time, $6.

1902	67	58
1903	73	58
1904	77	58
1905	79	58

The above male class is by far the most favored of all classes. The tendency downward did not reach "low water mark" until 1900, and lasted but one year. This was one to two years later than those of other classes even the female teachers in the high schools of same class. There has been a general downward tendency of female wages in the high schools for the last thirteen years, amounting to $13, as shown above. We believe that a universal exercise of the right of franchise upon the part of women relative to school affairs would result in receiving that "kindness that comes from caution" and respect that has its origin in fear.

DRIVER TELLS OF STRAIN.

Nervous Tension of Man at Wheel of Automobile.

The nervous tension under which the driver of an automobile racer is born has been graphically described by two Vanderbilt cup chauffeurs. Clement says: "When you first start, the ground seems to be rising up in front of you, as if to hit you in the face—that is, until you get your auto eyes adjusted. But even then there's always the thrill, and you haven't time for anything but the thrill and the watching of the long, narrow road in front. You haven't time to see what is on one side or the other. The people—that's about all we had on the sides in the Vanderbilt cup races—just seem to be a black-and-white border to the dark streak in front. Yes; you hear them shout, but by the time you realize it you are gone." And Wagner describes his sensations in driving as follows: "Beginning the eighth lap nearly eight minutes in the lead, the mental and physical strain became acute. My brain was in a dizzy whirl, and my hunger amounted almost to famine. But the price of satisfying it was prohibitive when every minute counted. The constant crashing and lurching of the car, the vigilance required at the frequent turns, the haunting fear of fatalities, and the anxiety regarding tires and mechanism were so exhausting that we lost over two minutes on the eighth round. Hunger remorseless and fanged was gnawing, gnawing, gnawing with almost sinister persistency, as it seemed. So we began the ninth and final round."

Trade in Condensed Milk.

The production of condensed milk in the United States is of comparatively recent origin. Only 8,000,000 pounds were sold in 1870. By 1880 the sale had reached 12,000,000 pounds. In 1890 as much as 37,000,000 pounds were sold. The amount sold in 1902 reached 187,000,000 pounds, and at the present time, no doubt, the production is still larger.

As a result I felt depressed and debilitated. I was told of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and got some and they acted finely. They made my nerves steady and strong, gave me restful sleep and a splendid feeling of general strength and vigor. I don't worry or bother now about small things any more, and am very grateful for the change. As a nerve and general tonic I consider the medicine has no equal."
